

STATE North Carolina	COUNTY FORSYTH (Davidson)	TOWN OR VICINITY Winston-Salem Vicinity 8p 12 Miles
INDEX NUMBER NC 34- — 1	MONUMENT ✓ Adam Spach House
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE	H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. NC-94	History - Built 1774 by Adam Spach;
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS	Bought by H. W. Foltz, a descendant
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS	of the builder who deeded it to the
2p = DISCARD ALSO NC-132	Wachovia Historical Society of Winston-Salem. Plans have been made for restoration. Present owner, Wachovia Historical Society of Winston-Salem. WEATHER BOARDED GABLES, ORIG. 1½ STORY OVER BASE- MENT 10-444 HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY ✓

Description - ^{FIELD} Stone laid up in clay with thick walls.
One story with basement and attic. Built over a spring and loopholed. Now in ruins.

LOW GABLE ROOF, END CHIMNEYS. FRONT 3 BAYS, CENTER DOOR

References - Miss Adelaide L. Fries, Archivist, Moravian
Church in America, 224 South Cherry Street,
Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

H. W. FOLTZ - DESCENDANTS OF ADAM SPACH
Author of Card

E. Bradbury,

Historic American Buildings
Survey Office,
Richmond, Virginia.

February 19, 1940.